

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Pablo Gonzalez Donaire. I am the CTO here at Azumo, so I can attest to his willingness to work hard. Since you are currently adding more engineers to your company, I ask that you please consider Pablo for some open position.

Pablo always displayed a solid work ethic. He would always be willing to perform any task that was assigned to him each day. He's passionate about writing code and solving clients' problems through the development of creative and innovative software.

If you hire Pablo for this position, I'm certain that he would perform his work as efficiently as he has done in the past in our company. He is honest, hardworking and committed to maintaining quality standards.

Thank you for your time.

Best Regards,
